Description

Late 19th-century oil on canvas, unsigned, depicting an allegorical scene with two nude female figures in a natural landscape. The composition highlights a finely modeled academic nude, accompanied by a draped figure, in a soft and poetic atmosphere. The treatment of flesh tones, the quality of the drawing, and the warm palette demonstrate a fine academic mastery, characteristic of French painting in the second half of the 19th century. The canvas is mounted on an old stretcher, with patina and slight signs of age consistent with its age. An elegant decorative work, typical of late 19th-century academic taste. Period: late 19th century. Technique: oil on canvas. School: French. Dimensions: 47 cm x 34 cm.
