Description

Magnificent and rare Art Deco dining table from the 1930s, made entirely of walnut. Very high-quality craftsmanship, undoubtedly the work of a designer yet to be identified. It features two original drawers, one on each side, which are very practical. In perfect condition, fully restored by our cabinetmaker. A truly magnificent Art Deco table; the legs have a very unusual and rare shape. The walnut grain on the tabletop is superb. Length 1.70m, Depth 92cm, Height 78cm, Height under the apron 67cm
