Description

Study of an elongated female nude signed by Jhonn Dated framed graphite & pastel drawingWhen pastel and graphite marry to recreate the female anatomy.Creation of the artist 'Jhonn' in the year 2000, this graphite drawing enhanced with red and white pastel is extraordinary.Study of the female anatomy, this drawing imposes itself as a more modern vision of the academic view of the nude. Usually these are the lines that direct and shape the vision of a naked body, here it is the silvery-white brown pastel for the decor and the arm, the gray to define the shape and the shadows of the folds of the body, allowing to guess a woman's body lying facing the artist.Complex mystery of nature, the human body is since the dawn of Antiquity a subject of moral controversies and philosophical
