Description

This masterful sculpture, dating from the mid-20th century, depicts Guan Yu, the legendary general of the Three Kingdoms period, a universal symbol of loyalty and courage. Carved with exceptional precision from deep green malachite, the work highlights the stone's natural veins, creating a striking sense of movement. The warrior is shown in full armor, riding his faithful steed, the "Red Hare." Every detail, from the patterns on the armor to the resolute expression on his face, testifies to the craftsmanship characteristic of this era. Presented on a carved wooden base, this piece is both a refined work of art and a powerful symbol of protection.
