Description

Timeless Elegance for Your Home If you are looking for a piece that combines fine Italian craftsmanship with the narrative charm of mid-century design, this "Pair of 1950s Venetian wooden lamps - Young boys" is an unmissable opportunity. Crafted in Venice around 1950, these luminous sculptures are more than just furniture; they are true works of art capturing the essence of youthful vitality. Entirely carved in wood, the figures masterfully portray two young boys carrying a light--a symbolism that brings warmth and dynamism to any room. Standing at an impressive height of 94 cm, these lamps command the space with understated class. The white fabric lampshades, featuring elegant patterns (h.40, L.40x30), diffuse a soft and welcoming light, perfect for enhancing
