Description

If you are looking for a piece to define the identity of your space, this pair of glazed ceramic lamps from 1950 represents the pinnacle of Italian industrial design applied to decorative art. Created for the Pirelli Italy Company, these extraordinary glove-shaped sculptures catch the eye with their vibrant orange hue and impeccable shine. Set on elegant gold metal bases, these lamps (h 36x36 cm) blend 1950s pop audacity with timeless refinement. The true touch of exclusivity? The lampshades made from original Prada wallpaper, a detail that elevates these items to cult status for fashion and design collectors. In excellent general condition, these pieces are not merely light sources, but true style catalysts capable of transforming a modern living room or a prestigious office. A rare opportunity to own a
