Description

19th Century Crystal Cage Chandelier. This superb baluster-shaped cage chandelier, crafted from cut crystal, is mounted on a finely worked bronze frame. The structure is adorned with an abundance of cut crystal drops and plaques, alternating between drops, almonds, and flowers, creating a remarkable play of light. The central crystal stem is accented with gilt bronze arms, each holding period candle holders and candle cups, forming a harmonious and balanced ensemble. The upper section is embellished with garlands and pendants, characteristic of high-quality cage chandeliers. This chandelier, typical of the 19th century, is in keeping with the tradition of grand decorative lighting inspired by the Louis XV/Louis XVI period. It will bring elegance and refinement to a classic interior or a
