Description

A refined and elegant late 19th-century triptych, consisting of two vases and a centerpiece bowl, crafted from fine Baccarat crystal in an intense cobalt blue, finely hand-engraved with highly precise and luminous geometric and star motifs. The vases, slender and balanced in proportion, feature rich deep-cut workmanship that enhances the purity of the crystal and the brilliance of the light. The bowl, with its extraordinary visual impact, is embellished with a finely crafted silver mount, featuring a beaded edge, shaped feet, and a top handle, elements that lend the ensemble a sense of great decorative refinement. The harmonious juxtaposition of the intense blue of the crystal and the whiteness of the silver testifies to the excellence of late 19th-century French craftsmanship, making this
