Description

Timeless Elegance: A Masterpiece of Italian Cabinetmaking If you are looking for a piece capable of transforming a space into a room full of history, this round center table is the definitive choice. Crafted in Bologna around 1850, it represents the excellence of 19th-century Italian craftsmanship. Entirely constructed from fine Italian walnut, the table is distinguished by its unique central leg that opens onto three sides, ensuring perfect stability and an unparalleled scenic presence. With a height of 77 cm and a diameter of 106 cm, its proportions are ideal for welcoming guests or serving as a decorative focal point in a prestigious interior. The item is in excellent condition in patina, preserving the warmth and luster that only time can bestow upon authentic wood. Logistics and Payment:
