Description

A beautiful set of three identical antique linen sheets, made of a thick, rustic cotton-linen blend, intended for winter use, from the linens of a prestigious residence near Narbonne. Each piece is embroidered in the center with a large monogram "MB" surmounted by a marquis's coronet, executed in exquisitely fine white embroidery, creating a striking decorative presence. The design is highlighted by a fine, even drawstring running across its entire width, a testament to meticulous craftsmanship. The fabric, a light cream color, has a dense, firm weave, characteristic of antique château linens. The sheets need washing. There is a very slight, localized crease, which should disappear after the next wash. ? Characteristics: Period: late 19th - early 20th century Material: linen/cotton blend
