Description

This Louis XV period trumeau, an authentic 18th-century piece, embodies the elegance and refinement of French decorative art. Its history, etched in every curve and gilt, makes it an exceptional find for antique enthusiasts and discerning collectors. It is in fairly good condition. This trumeau is in beautiful overall condition, a testament to artisanal craftsmanship preserved through the centuries. Its painted and carved wood, enhanced with gold leaf, reveals delicate details and a patina that speaks of time. A canvas mounted on the back, a scene from a bygone era. At the heart of this trumeau, an oil painting on canvas, mounted on the back, depicts a gallant scene, typical of the libertine and poetic spirit of the 18th century. This carefully integrated painting adds a narrative and artistic
