Description

CHOPARD signed ring in 750/°° yellow gold (18 KT, owl hallmark), from the Happy Diamonds collection in the theme of the heart. Based on the principle of a solitaire ring, a softly curved heart contains three brilliant-cut diamonds set in small, bezel-like boxes, left free and mobile behind a glass cover. This changes the aesthetic of the jewel with the body's movements, giving it a lively and playful character. The heart is mounted on a double, openwork band with a thread-like effect, which accentuates the overall roundness and softness of the ring, a feeling that is both visual and tactile. This principle of mobile diamonds is the signature of the "Happy Diamond" collection. The ring features the jeweler's signature and a number inside the band. Estimated diamond weight: approximately 0.15
