Description

An elegant Louis XV style commode, crafted with classic refinement. This piece is distinguished by its curved lines, characteristic of the 18th century, and by the richness of its precious wood veneers, arranged in geometric marquetry offering beautiful contrasts of color. The front features three spacious drawers, highlighted by superb chased bronze mounts: handles, keyhole escutcheons, and finely worked feet, decorated with foliage and rocaille motifs, typical of the Louis XV style. The rounded uprights and cabriole legs enhance the elegance and visual lightness of the piece. The veined and meticulously fitted marble top adds a further touch of nobility while ensuring robustness and practicality. The entire piece testifies to high-quality craftsmanship, ideal for enhancing a
