Description

Large and luminous 19th-century canvas depicting a remarkable still life consisting of a Chinese vase, flowers, and fruit, including grapes, peaches, and plums. The canvas is signed in the lower left corner, but the signature is difficult to decipher (see detail in photo 10). Note: Technically, this painting is executed with great skill, suggesting a skilled artist of the genre (a tip for those interested in research). A small, easily repairable tear of a few centimeters (below the peach on the left, see detail in photo) will be needed. Canvas: 65 cm x 54 cm. Frame (as is): 81 cm x 70 cm. Please ask for additional photos if needed.
