Description

Pair of 1950s Design Coffee Tables. An elegant pair of tables with two clear glass tops, supported by a chromed steel frame made of flat uprights arranged in a cross. The minimalist design and clean edges evoke 1970s European design, in the style of Pierre Vandel or Romeo Rega: transparency, brilliance, and geometric lines for a light yet chic presence. The "floating" tops allow light to pass through and visually enlarge the space; the second level is perfect for books or decorative objects. A modular set that can be used side by side as a coffee table, separated as end tables, or as bedside tables. Good overall condition with discreet signs of wear on the chrome; the glass is clean. A versatile pair, ready to bring a vintage and graphic touch to a contemporary interior. Discover all our other
