Description

Oil on canvas depicting a lively village alleyway, signed by Henri Levasseur. Known primarily for his monumental sculptures awarded prizes at World's Fairs, Levasseur reveals here his talent as a landscape painter. In this composition, the artist captures with great sensitivity the peaceful atmosphere of rural life. The use of perspective draws us into the heart of the village, where the interplay of light and shadow on the old facades creates depth. The brushwork is both precise and vibrant, characteristic of the late 19th-century Post-Impressionist style, offering a poetic and timeless vision of heritage. Signed lower right H. Levasseur. Frame dimensions: x cm. Canvas dimensions: x cm. Good condition, note a discreet tear that could be repaired. Delivery possible via Colissimo, very careful packaging, EUR45 for
