

Bust Of Napoleon I, From The Empire Period

14 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Width : 50

Height : 69

Description

Bust of Napoleon I, Empire period. Description: Jean-Antoine Houdon (1741-1828), after a representation of Emperor Napoleon I in the uniform of the Foot Grenadiers of the Imperial Guard. A substantial biscuit porcelain bust, after the famous marble model held at the Palace of Versailles (MV 1518). The reverse is marked in relief: "Official Bust / Napoleon Emperor / 1805," surmounted by the fictitious mark "Manufacture Impériale de Sèvres." The whole rests on a porcelain pedestal with a beautiful blue ground, itself placed on a square gilt bronze base, giving the work a strong decorative presence. Condition - Restorations: Very good overall condition. Note: a small, old chip on the pedestal, not serious. The bust has retained its original patina, which has been intentionally preserved. A light

Dealer

GALERIE DE CICCIO MONACO

Empire

Tel : 0033 (0)6 08 75 41 17

La Villa, 19 Galerie Charles III

Monaco 98000

surface cleaning, due to age, has been carried out, without altering the historical appearance of the work. Empire Period - 19th century Dimensions
Total height: 69 cm Width: 50 cm Attention collectors and decorators Attention discerning collectors and decorators: do not miss this magnificent bust, spectacular in its size and quality of execution. It will be a striking and iconic focal point for any décor, whether in a classic or contemporary interior. Delivery Professional packaging and delivery offered by Galerie De Cicco, in France and Europe.