Description

This object is an antique key rack, likely from a hotel, boarding house, workshop, or concierge's office dating from the early 20th century. It possesses an industrial charm that is highly sought after today for interior decoration (used as a key holder in an entryway or to display small objects). Object characteristics: * Capacity: 45 slots (numbered hooks). * Materials: Painted wooden frame (original light green/almond color), wooden back with horizontal slats and numbering painted by stencil or hand. * Condition: "In its original condition," which contributes to its value to collectors (authentic patina, signs of wear).
