Description

Nevers faience planter on a column by Antoine Montagnon, Number 8 Height 80 cm, diameter 40 cm (at the top of the planter) The Planter has a hairline crack visible only from the inside. The column has been restored and stapled at the base. From the outside, the restorations are not visible; the colors are vibrant, and the piece is of fine quality. This set dates from before 1899, as the signature is A M. The Nevers factory closed in 2015. You can see the finest pieces at the Nevers Museum of Fine Arts. The MONTAGNON pottery factory, located at 10 Rue De La Porte Du Croux in Nevers, closed its doors in 2015. This factory, located at the edge of the world, was the oldest pottery factory in France. Four generations of master potters succeeded one another. Antoine MONTAGNON bought the factory in 1875 and
