Description

Refined pair of Bergère armchairs, crafted from solid wood, carved and lacquered in Empire green. The armchairs feature a linear structure, with molded legs embellished with elegant carvings featuring plant and geometric motifs, culminating on the backrest with a depiction of two kissing cherubs. The seat is extremely comfortable, thanks to the padding, and is embellished with an ivory-colored fabric that lends further refinement. This pair of armchairs exudes great taste and class, adding a touch of elegance and antiquity to any space. Italian craftsmanship, early 19th century.
