Description

Antique painting - 17th century school. Oil on canvas depicting a holy abbot in prayer, probably Saint Benedict, recognizable by the abbot's crozier, the book, and the monastic habit. The composition is imbued with contemplation and spirituality, typical of 17th-century religious painting, with a beautiful rendering of the faces, hands, and drapery. A work of great presence, with sober and profound tones, originally intended for a religious or devotional setting. The raised gaze and expressive gestures lend the scene a strong emotional intensity. Technique: oil on canvas. Period: 17th century. Dimensions: o Height: 106 cm o Width: 81 cm. Condition: Relined painting, work executed some time ago. A patina and signs of age are present, consistent with the work's age (crazing, slight wear), without
