Description

Antique Chinese porcelain figure depicting Guanyin, the Bodhisattva of Compassion, shown in the traditional Songzi Guanyin form, also known as "Guanyin Who Grants Children", seated and holding a small child in her lap. The figure is decorated in a vibrant famille verte palette, with green robes finely painted with floral motifs in blue, yellow, black and white enamels. Songzi Guanyin refers to a form of Guanyin traditionally prayed to for fertility, safe pregnancy, healthy children and family continuity. Guanyin is shown wearing a hooded mantle and prayer beads, holding a Buddhist sutra book in her left hand. Her expression is calm and contemplative, with delicately modelled facial features. The child, symbolising fertility, protection and compassion, sits peacefully against
