Description

19th Century Bronze - Chained Cupid by Denise Delavigne (19th century) Edition Cast - Thiébaut Frères Foundry Height: 67 cm Important bronze with a medal patina depicting a chained Cupid, an allegorical figure of captive Love, after Denise Delavigne, from an early edition cast by the prestigious Thiébaut Frères Foundry. The sculpture is distinguished by the quality of the casting, the finesse of the modeling, and the melancholic expression of the subject. The details of the flesh, wings, and drapery testify to the great skill of 19th-century French sculpture. The base is signed "Delavigne" and bears the Thiébaut Frères foundry mark. Warm and even antique medal patina. Very good overall condition. A decorative and symbolic bronze with a striking presence, ideal for a collection or a classic
