Description

Oval Giltwood Mirror - 19th Century. This elegant oval mirror, crafted from carved and gilded wood, dates from the 19th century and is richly ornamented in the Neoclassical style. The frame features finely worked moldings decorated with pearls and friezes, surmounted by a carved pediment composed of a wreath of foliage, trophies, and decorative attributes, lending the piece a noble and decorative air. The original gilding has a beautiful, warm patina, with slight wear that underscores the piece's authenticity and age. The mirror retains its original silvering, showing discreet signs of age without affecting the clarity of the reflection. This mirror is ideal for an entryway, living room, or bedroom, adding depth, light, and character to a classic or eclectic interior. Period: 19th century Material: carved
