Description

Painting oil on canvas measuring 118 x 148.5 cm without frame and 133 x 163 cm with a wonderful contemporary frame depicting fruit and vegetables outdoors with a guinea pig by the painter Angelo Maria Rossi (active in Milan in the second half of the 17th century). The literary history of this formidable still life artist began in the mid-1880s thanks to Luigi Salerno, who finally managed to distinguish his works from those of other similar painters. We can say that Angelo Maria Rossi's main characteristic lies in the luminous accentuation of his subjects, sometimes capable of achieving true red, yellow and green iridescence in his illustrations of peaches, apples, quinces and pears. In this large canvas, a large yellow pumpkin appears in the centre, surrounded by grapes and apples of fine
