Art Deco Sideboard Circa 1930

3 400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Art Deco Sideboard - Circa 1930. An important Art Deco sideboard dating from the 1930s, veneered in precious woods, opening with two side doors and three central drawers lined in parchment. The front is highlighted by an elegant black lacquered frame, emphasizing the contrast between the dark veneer and the light parchment. The whole is enhanced by original metal handles with a characteristic Art Deco design. The top has a refined curved shape, with fluid and balanced lines, demonstrating meticulous craftsmanship and fine cabinetmaking. The structure rests on a solid base incorporating a lower shelf, providing stability and functionality. Very fine quality of manufacture, harmonious proportions, and a remarkable decorative presence. Good overall condition, with slight signs of wear and patina.
