Description

This office chair embodies the understated elegance of the Restoration period. Crafted from mahogany enhanced by its warm patina, it is distinguished by its enveloping backrest formed by a sloping band, extended by sculpted scrolls that harmoniously rest on cavetto supports. The double baluster front legs, mounted on brass casters, combine refinement and mobility, while the saber-shaped rear legs ensure discreet stability. The straight apron at the front emphasizes the stylistic rigor of the early 19th century. The seat, upholstered in deep-colored studded leather, offers firm comfort and a decidedly classic look. This chair, both functional and decorative, is perfectly suited to an interior that values authenticity and character. A charismatic chair that will find its place in a
