Description

An elegant Aubusson-style rug, distinguished by its highly structured and perfectly symmetrical composition. The design is organized around a large central circular medallion, adorned with foliate scrolls and delicate polychrome flowers, reminiscent of the Neoclassical decorative repertoire of the late 18th century. The whole is framed by a rich border featuring frieze motifs, stylized columns, and floral garlands, rendered in a refined palette of ivory, beige, powder pink, seafoam green, and pale blue, lending the rug great elegance and perfect clarity of design. Size : 312 x 245 cm Condition : Used, showing general wear to the wool as well as some stains and signs of age blended into the design, without detracting from the overall composition or harmony. Despite these signs of wear, the rug retains a beautiful
