Description

Original musician's armchair, from the Louis XVI period, in carved and gilded wood (likely regilded around 1900). Its low seat rests on four fluted legs and has a backrest of a very particular shape, which slightly wraps around the sides while allowing great freedom of movement for playing music thanks to the absence of armrests. A very fine-quality chair, beautifully carved. The pegged joints are perfectly solid, and the Beauvais tapestry with musical motifs is also original.

Total height: 72 cm Seat height: 39 cm Width: 62 cm
