Description

An elegant pair of side tables dating from the 1970s, crafted in the spirit of French design of the period, reminiscent of Maison Jansen or Romeo. The bases are made of curved, transparent Plexiglas, resting on three cabriole legs connected by a central ring of gilt brass. Each table is adorned with suspended circular brass motifs, an emblematic decorative detail that adds movement and refinement to the whole. The circular glass tops are rimmed with gilt brass. The combination of Plexiglas and brass gives these side tables an elegant and timeless aesthetic, perfectly suited to contemporary interiors as well as Hollywood Regency style decor. Period: Circa 1970.
Materials: Plexiglas, gilt brass, glass.
Dimensions: Height: 70 cm. Tabletop diameter: 60 cm. Total diameter: 87 cm. Condition: Very
