

Contemporary Sculpture Of A Man Climbing Stairs

250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

A contemporary sculpture depicting a stylized human figure in dark metal, frozen in a moment of ascent. The slender figure rises on a light-colored, textured vertical base, the top of which is cut into irregular steps evoking effort, progress, and self-improvement. The contrast between the figure's delicate form and the base's mass creates a strong and balanced composition. The piece exudes a striking graphic presence, enhanced by the cast shadow that visually extends the sculpture. A unique piece with a clean, modern style, ideal for contemporary interior design, an office, or an art space.
