Description

Discover this sublime games table, inspired by the Louis XV style, combining the timeless charm of French craftsmanship with functionality designed for board and card game enthusiasts. Its refined design and meticulous details make it a unique piece, ideal for enlivening your living room or enhancing a classic interior. This table is distinguished by its double top, offering remarkable versatility. The first top, in fern veneer, reveals warm, natural patterns, perfect for a convivial and elegant atmosphere. The second top, covered in faux leather, adds a touch of modernity and robustness, while also making maintenance easy. Particular care has been taken to protect this piece of furniture: the green felt lining the lower top gently protects the veneer when changing the tops. The slightly curved legs, typical of the Louis XV style, give this table a graceful appearance and optimal stability. Designed for player comfort, this table features four convenient drawers for storing cards, chips, or other game accessories. It also includes four side shelves, providing each player with a personal space for their cards or drinks without cluttering the playing surface. In excellent condition, this table has stood the test of time with elegance and sturdiness. Its dimensions--71.5 cm wide (square) and 75 cm high--make it a piece of furniture that is both imposing and adaptable to various spaces, whether a living room, game room, or office. Perfect for bridge, poker, or any other board game, this game table is more than just a piece of furniture: it's an invitation to share unforgettable moments with friends and family. Its Louis XV style, finely crafted wood veneer, and high-end finish make it a collector's item, capable of enhancing any interior. Treat yourself to a piece of history and conviviality with this games table, where every detail has been carefully considered to combine aesthetics, practicality, and durability. A rare piece, both functional and decorative, sure to appeal to lovers of exceptional objects. Feel free to contact me with any questions or to arrange a viewing to admire this table in person.
