

Okimono With The Seven Karako And The Carp, Japan, 19th Century

900 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 31cm

Description

An exceptional, single-piece horizontal sculpture depicting a monumental carp surrounded by six children (karako) and an adult. This work celebrates perseverance (represented by the carp) and family joy. The piece impresses with the delicate expressions and the meticulously incised details of the fabrics. The reverse is adorned with delicate floral motifs and bears the signature of the artist, Mitsumoto (?). A dynamic work with an amber patina, it perfectly illustrates the skill of the master sculptors of the Meiji era.
