Description

An important "sunburst" mirror in carved and gilded wood, a 20th-century piece in the style of the iconic models popularized during the reign of Louis XIV. The radiating composition alternates stylized branches in relief, arranged in a circle around a central circular mirror. The whole piece displays fine carving and warm gilding, offering a strong decorative presence. The inner mirror, 50 cm in diameter, is set within a molded frame. With its substantial overall diameter of 125 cm, the mirror is a spectacular piece, ideal above a fireplace, a sideboard, or in a grand entryway. Dimensions: Overall diameter: 125 cm; Miroir diameter: 50 cm; Material: Carved and gilded wood; Period: 20th century, circa 1970; Condition: Good overall condition, minor wear consistent with use. A striking decorative piece,
