

Tsuba, Edo Period (1603-1868)

390 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

A rectangular tsuba (handguard) from the Nadegaku Gata period, dating from the 18th-19th centuries. Made of iron with inlaid takazogan decoration in copper and silver, depicting two figures at a window, one looking at a constellation, the other at a serpent's head emerging from the ground. Traces of oxidation. Dimensions: 6.7 cm x 6 cm, 4 mm thick. Feel free to ask any questions.

Dealer

Les Collectionneurs d'exception
Antiquités

Mobile : 0680846185

112 quai de Bezons

Argenteuil 95100