Description

An exceptional Fabergé vodka decanter in its original red velvet theatrical box, embossed with the Fabergé crest. The egg, decanter, and glasses are crafted in Murano glass. The egg's surface is covered with a colored enamel that imitates precious natural minerals. The enamel protects the surface and lends the product a special elegance. The metallic relief on the surface of the egg, the decanter, and the glasses is covered in 24-karat gold, as are its feet in the shape of winged lions and the eagle crowning the egg. The decanter includes a gilded holder for four small glasses. The stopper and the rim of the decanter are decorated with rhinestones of different colors, imitating precious stones. This egg is in beautiful condition, with no missing pieces, and its box has two small holes in the velvet lining (see the last
