Description

View of Toledo, Spain - Bridge over the Tagus (Puente de San Martín), circa 1935-1936h 54 cm x w 66 cm oil on canvas original canvas and original stretcher View of the historic city of Toledo, Spain, featuring its famous bridge over the Tagus River, identifiable as the Puente de San Martín, one of the city's most iconic monumental entrances. The composition conveys the dry and luminous atmosphere of the Castilian landscape through a simplified painterly approach built with broad color planes and warm tones, typical of European interwar painting. Signed lower right, signature partially legible. On the reverse, an old handwritten label in French reads "Tolède - Pont sur le Tage", with the date "1935/1936" and the name of an artist noted as Jacques (Paul) Fourestier; a further attribution note mentions
