Description

We are pleased to present this oil painting on cardboard with a canvas backing. The pictorial style suggests a late 20th-century Italian painter; the painting features the initials N.P. at the bottom left, but the artist's name has not been identified.It is a beautiful autumn landscape. In the foreground, a wide meadow with colors ranging from green to brown, but the most eye-catching feature is the large row of large trees--numerous trees with red leaves in the center and a few with green leaves on the sides. A deep blue sky creates a distinctive visual accent in the background. The painterly quality is evident, a realistic style with delicate, slightly textured brushstrokes that give shape to the trees. The artist creates a fantastic, idyllic autumn landscape suspended between reality and dream,
