Description

Oliograph on canvas - Ritual scene inspired by antiquity, 20th century. Large oliograph on canvas depicting a solemn scene inspired by antiquity, set within a monumental architectural setting reminiscent of a classical temple. The composition features a couple approaching an ornate altar, surrounded by an assembly of figures draped in classical style. Musicians, priests, and spectators participate in the scene, lending the whole a strong narrative and ceremonial dimension. The sculpted architecture, friezes, columns, and background statues demonstrate a marked taste for the neoclassical aesthetic, highly prized in 20th-century decorative arts. The figures are richly draped in delicate hues--pinks, greens, blues, and deep reds--subtly contrasted by the stone tones of the building. The scene is rendered
