Description

An imposing carved and molded wooden fireplace mirror, painted in the Neo-Renaissance style. 19th century. A columned overmantel mirror with a gallery. The mirror is surmounted by a projecting entablature decorated with a balustraded gallery (reminiscent of Renaissance castle balustrades). The frame is flanked by two finely carved engaged columns. Fluted moldings, turned rings, and baluster-shaped elements are visible at the base. The upper part of the pediment features a rectangular relief panel. The aged patina finish reveals the wood grain while adding light nuances to the recesses, beautifully highlighting the carvings. Wooden backing. Mercury-beveled mirror with excellent clarity. Note a small chip at the top and bottom of the right column (see photo). Can be placed on a
