Description

Large Decorative Ceramic Peacock - 20th Century. An imposing decorative piece depicting a standing peacock, crafted from polychrome glazed ceramic. The bird is rendered with exquisite detail: plumage rendered in green, blue, and ochre scales, finely incised wings and long tail, and a stylized head with a characteristic crest. It rests on a naturalistic base adorned with foliage and flowers in relief, enhancing the elegance and sculptural presence of the whole. This large piece is a true statement piece, ideal for a characterful interior, a veranda, a hall, or a conservatory. Period: 20th century. Height: 96 cm. Material: glazed ceramic. Condition: good overall condition, with slight wear and minor signs of age consistent with its use (see photos). A spectacular decorative object, rare due to its
