Description

Louis XVI Style Mahogany Drop-front Secretary, 19th Century. This elegant Louis XVI style drop-front secretary, dating from the 19th century, is crafted from solid mahogany and mahogany veneer, finely highlighted with marquetry stringing. The drop-front reveals a refined and well-structured interior, composed of small drawers, niches, and a fluted central door, offering functional storage space. The piece is topped with a gray marble slab, adding elegance and contrast to the overall design. The front features three large drawers adorned with finely chased gilt bronze mounts, decorated with garlands and bows, characteristic of the Louis XVI style. The fluted uprights, tapered legs ending in bronze sabots, and harmonious proportions underscore the quality of the
