

Pair Of Imari Vases

13 500 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Porcelain

Description

A pair of Imari porcelain vases from Japan, adorned with foliate gilt-bronze mounts. The porcelain features a floral bouquet design within scalloped borders that echo the vase's curved silhouette. The gilt and chased bronze mounts are openwork and display scrolling foliage, perfectly evoking the Rococo style. Louis XV bronzes. 18th-century Japanese porcelain. Used condition. H. 30 x W. 24 x D. 14 cm
