Description

A Louis XV Period Carved and Gilded Wooden Mirror, Circa 1750. This sublime Louis XV period gilded and carved wooden mirror features a superb Rococo decoration. The mirror is richly and finely carved with asymmetrical scrolls and foliate tendrils. Its frame is decorated with a scalloped edge and carved in relief. The pediment is adorned with a stylized Rococo cartouche. It has a very attractive patina, and its original mercury glass is delicately marked by time. This piece of furniture is of very high quality, with elegant and refined lines. Combining everyday functionality with a beautiful visual appeal thanks to its harmonious and delicate curves, this mirror, with its beautiful proportions, will easily complement your interior décor. An exceptional piece with meticulous finishing, embodying the
