Description

Carved Wooden Shell-Shaped Coffee Table, 20th Century. This spectacular sculptural coffee table, crafted in the 20th century from carved wood, features organic, undulating lines. The base, treated as a true sculpture, evokes a large open shell, its rhythmic relief striations highlighting the craftsmanship and the piece's decorative character. A circular glass top adds visual lightness, allowing the sculpture to be fully appreciated. A striking and original decorative piece, ideal as a coffee table or side table, it's perfect for a bold interior, a contemporary setting, or a chic coastal style. In good overall condition, with signs of wear and patina consistent with the age and style of the object. Dimensions: Height: 35 cm Width: 107 cm
