Description

Giuseppe Gheduzzi, "Gray Day in Venice," oil on canvas, signed, Early 1900s
Giuseppe Gheduzzi Gray Day in Venice Oil on canvas, signed lower left; signature and title of the work on the back. Venetian view depicting a large square dominated by a monumental bridge animated by numerous figures in transit. The balanced and well-structured composition leads the eye along the central axis of the bridge, emphasized by the obelisk and the perspective balustrades, while the lagoon architecture is outlined in the background with sobriety and precision. The scene is pervaded by a subdued light, consistent with the title of the work, which contributes to creating a suspended, everyday atmosphere. The tones are delicate and harmonized in a range of grays, beiges, and light
