Louis XV Corner Cabinet in Rosewood -
Stamped François GARNIER - 18th Century. An elegant Louis XV period curved corner cabinet in rosewood veneer, featuring exceptional geometric marquetry known as "butterfly wing" or "leaf" marquetry. This high-quality piece bears the stamp "FG" on the upper right stile, the mark of the Parisian cabinetmaker François Garnier (received as a Master before 1740), one of the most talented craftsmen on the rue du Faubourg Saint-Antoine during the reign of Louis XV.
Main features: o Front: It opens with two doors decorated with rosewood frieze within end-grain wood frames, highlighting a perfect curve. o Interior: A rare luxury detail, the reverse of the doors is also inlaid with a lozenge pattern. The cabinet retains its original shelves and its large
