(New) The artist's words: "I experiment with volume and develop my personal research 'from drawing to sculpture, from sculpture to drawing.' I approach volume by questioning techniques and materials, by focusing on an idea, a concept, or a search for spontaneity. My intention is to break free from the monolith by replacing Working with mass, through the manipulation of lines of force, transparencies, and voids, brings me closer and closer to drawing in space.
