Description

A Monumental Masterpiece: The Spirit of 1940 for Your Home We are proud to present an exclusive set of 7 lacquered wood "boiserie" wall panels, a work of art that masterfully blends history, architecture, and superior craftsmanship. Painted using the refined grisaille technique, these panels replicate the iconic facade of the Palazzo delle Nazioni in EUR (Rome). Within the elegant residential arches, the "sporting disciplines" come to life: each panel is a celebration of identity, with every depiction representing a sport associated with a specific Italian region. The provenance adds immeasurable value to the collection, as it originates from the private residence of a prominent politician. Technical Details: Composition: 6 panels (H 275 x W 42
