Description
-------------

This pedestal cup, a sublime example of 18th-century craftsmanship, embodies the timeless elegance of French silversmithing. Made of solid silver, it bears the prestigious hallmark of the Rooster, a guarantee of authenticity and quality, as well as the signature of the silversmith Belin, a respected name in the history of Parisian art. The base of the cup is engraved "J - Mallet." Weighing 136 grams and standing 12 cm tall, it is a piece that is both majestic and refined, ideal for gracing a table or a collection of objets d'art. Every detail of this cup is an invitation to wonder: the remarkably fine chasing features floral motifs and arabesques that seem to dance in the light. The delicately crafted engravings reveal artisanal expertise where each curve and leaf seems to tell a story. The overall condition of this piece is
